Judge Stubbs Scathingly Attacks Accusers

MANITOBA'S GOVERNMENT IS PLAYED

Bennett Quoted as Authority on What Constitutes Jurist

By ERNEST HURBERT
Winnipeg, March 2.—Breaking his silence for the first time since an investigation under Mr. Justice Frank Ford, into his judicial conduct was requested, Judge Lewis St. George Stubbs yesterday again swung into his old style of attack against his accusers.

The little judge again broke into a scathing criticism of Hon. W. J. Major, attorney-general of Manitoba, the Manitoba government, the Dominion government, the minister of justice, commission counsel, Arthur Sullivan, K.C., and judges of the court of appeal. Reading from what he termed "the highest authority," the judge quoted Premier Bennett's remarks in the house of commons during the proposal in 1912 to decrease judges' salaries.

"Judges," quoted Judge Stubbs, "are not servants of the crown. They are buffers which stand between the people and the crown for the protection of all."

VAIN HOPE EXPRESSED

"I wish the attorney-general had been there to hear that," he added, as he tossed the book on the table. "But," he continued, "I say with respect, if the government had given any more than lip service to that sound principle, I would not be here today."

"The minister of justice had pleaded he had no alternative but to order an investigation," the judge continued, when he received the complaints from the attorney-general, but he was no more duty bound to do that than he would be to make a certain judicial appointment because it had been suggested by the attorney-general."

REPEATS HIS CHARGE

He repeated his charge that he had been subject to a political attack and demanded by a county court judge should not be free from the grip of politicians like higher court judges. "It would be a good subject for an amendment," he added.

"The amazing anachronism of the 20th century," the judge began, "the Bracken government in its superlative incompetency through its attorney-general and the Bennett government—"

Mr. Justice Ford, however, interrupted the judge and warned him the course he was starting was not only unwise but improper and irrelevant. He would make no attempt to prevent such declarations, however.

Strong language may have been used by him, the judge admitted, but anything he had done or said was in keeping with his conscience.

YANKS LOSING BRITISH TRADE

Sheffield, March 2.—"We are looking more orders in Canada than ever before and the Americans are losing ground rapidly in the last important outside market left there as far as heavy steel and iron goods are concerned," declares today's issue of the official journal of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce.

The Journal says the trade seems to have turned at last with the broadening demands of this country meeting increasing losses with the dominions.

ACADEMY RUINED BY $75,000 FIRE

SACVILLE, N.B., March 2.—Mount Allison Academy, a three-story wooden structure, was destroyed by fire Wednesday together with much of the furnishings and equipment as well as clothing and personal belongings of the students and teaching staff. Loss was estimated at $75,000. No one was injured.

The fire started in the upper part of the Academy, apparently from defective wiring in the flue, and spread along the entire top of the building before being discovered.

Red Pine Poles Will Be Shipped To British Mart

OTTAWA, March 2.—Canada will send a ship-load of red pine poles to the United Kingdom to be tried out as telegraph poles. Later a shipment of jack-pine poles from New Brunswick may be sent across.

Despatches from London reported that the British government has been in communication with Canadian timber officials with a view to securing a supply of maple poles. Officials of the interior department state, however, that maple is never used for this purpose, and that cedar, red pine and jack pine are the woods which stand up under weather conditions. When treated with creosote they have been found satisfactory.

It is the intention to send across some of these poles for testing under United Kingdom weather conditions. If they are found satisfactory, and if Scandinavian countries prices can be met, the trial shipments may be followed by others on a commercial basis.

There was another heavy drop in the export of Canadian lumber in January, the amount being 29,500 pounds valued at $6,000. The 12 months export was 3,432,000 pounds valued at $668,311 compared with 16,727,200 pounds valued at $2,334,430 last year.

Change Proposed In Naming Of Prison Officials

OTTAWA, March 2.—Appointment of penitentiary officials by cabinet council instead of by the civil service commission is proposed by Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of justice, in a resolution placed on the house of commons order paper yesterday. The recommendation, it believed based on findings of the investigations into recent riots in Dartmouth and St. Vincent De Paul penitentiaries. Naming of a superintendent of penitentiaries, inspectors, wardens and other administrative officers and fixing of their salaries will come under cabinet if the proposal is adopted. The superintendent will be empowered to appoint guards, trade instructors and other subordinate officers.

SCRIP FOR RINGS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 2.—Even Dan Cupit may soon be transacting his business by tender and scrip. A jewelry store has informed the unemployed labor and commodity exchange of politicians like the organization's scrip for wedding rings.

Stutter Cause Found, But No Remedy Offered

CHICAGO, March 2.—Here cheer for stutterer! Prof. Arthur G. Bills of the University of Chicago psychological department said today that a series of tests had convinced him almost everybody stammers.

When the public speaker pauses in his address and says "he's just stuttering," said Prof. Bills, "it isn't that he is stammering over the next word."

But in claiming to have found the cause of stuttering—fatigue—the professor said so far he had no cure to offer.

The more fatigued the normal person—one not addicted to dragging out his words in numerous syllables—the officer he pauses, said Prof. Bills.

JAPS BUY OLD VESSELS

LIVERPOOL, Eng., March 2.—The Japanese government, which recently bought several old British passenger liners, has bought three more British vessels, it was learned Wednesday. They are the Broads, the Incisite, the Canadian Ranger, the Moeraki and the Wattmista.

New Zealand Readily Accepts Conversion Plan

WELLINGTON, N.Z., March 2.—The 115,000,000 New Zealand Loan the government launched yesterday is receiving ready voluntary support but it is understood those who do not convert their holding will be penalized by a reduction of their interest percentage.

The government is strongly urging all stock-holders to convert their loans and expect by the full time in save the country about £250,000. The loan reduces the National debt 7 oddings to a four-per-cent basis.

Shaw Astounds Hotel Manager; Had No Kicks

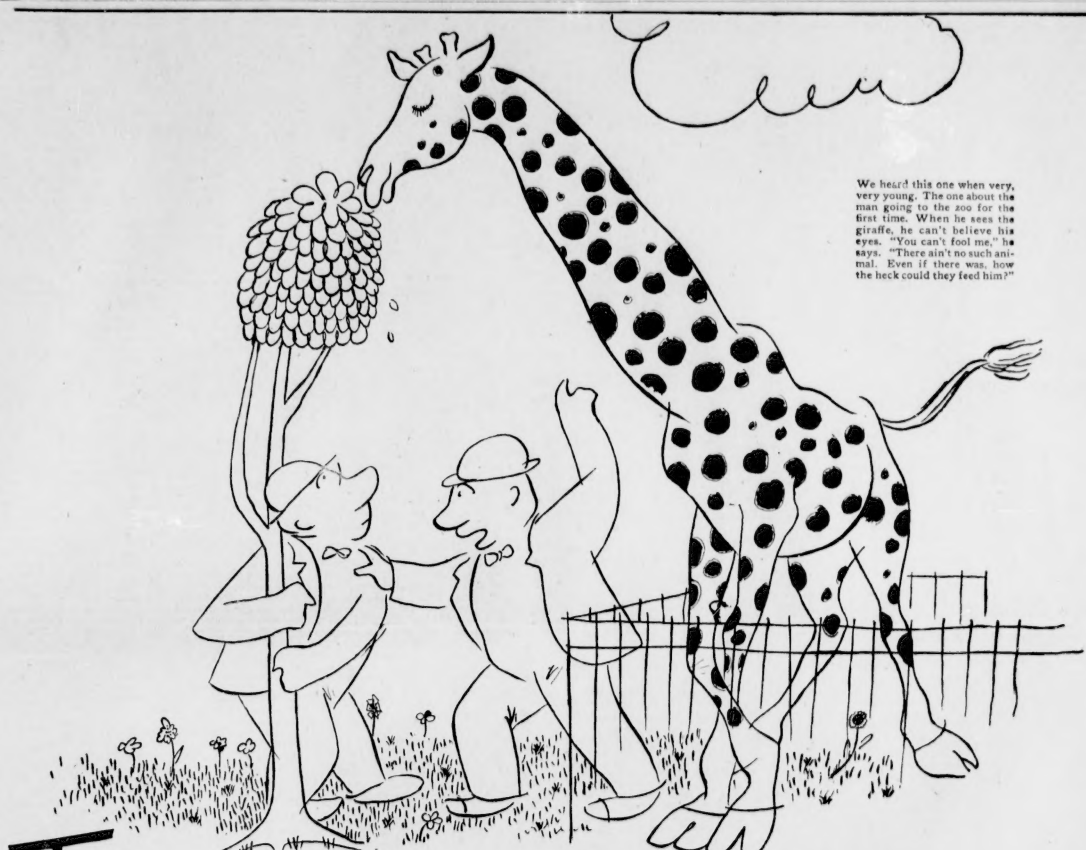

KANDY, Ceylon, March 2.—The favorite book in a local hotel is the complaints book—but only since George Bernard Shaw stopped here on a cruise around the world.

Before leaving the hotel Mr. Shaw asked for the complaints book. The management was astounded, but the book was produced and Mr. Shaw wrote severely. Then manager read: "Nothing to complain. An earthly paradise."

We heard this one when very, very young. The one about the man going to the zoo for the first time. When he sees the giraffe, he can't believe his eyes. "You can't fool me," he says. "There ain't no such animal. Even if there was, how the heck could they feed him?"

THERE AIN'T NO SUCH ANIMAL

(Please excuse us for using this old story—But it helps to make a point)

IF YOU WANT to steal the spot-light in this car-driving Dominion . . . bring out an automobile . . . that's really NEW!

You'll start more rumors than a party-line telephone . . . You'll have the industry shouting, "Stop! You're rocking the boat!" You'll have hard-pressed competing salesmen saying, "It just isn't possible. There ain't no such animal!"

We know. Because Plymouth has done just that!

We admit there's a lot about Plymouth that's startling . . . and hard to believe.

Back in 1930, for instance, who would have thought that a new car could come within reaching distance of First Place in the low-price field . . . in the space of two short years?

Who would have thought . . . with two old-established cars in the field . . . that this new-come would be the only car to increase its sales in 1932?

Or who would have dreamed . . . even ninety days ago . . . that today you could buy, for $675 f.o.b. . .

☞ A SIX with a 70-horsepower rating, and a 75-mile top-speed . . . by stop-watch!

☞ A SIX with Patented Floating Power engine mountings . . . which have proved that they end all vibration!

☞ A SIX that is stronger in every part . . . yet easier on gas, oil and tires . . . because 300 pounds of useless dead weight have been taken out by scientific and energetic engineering.

☞ A SIX that has a modern steel body . . . safe as a modern steel railroad car.

☞ A SIX with self-equalizing hydraulic brakes—like those on hard-driven modern taxicabs, and drums that reduce reeling jobs 50% to 75%!

☞ A SIX which, alone in its price-class, has tool-steel valve inserts that save the car owner from $10 to $30 a year on valve grinding!

Yes . . . who would ever have thought it possible?

Yet here it is . . . the new Plymouth Six . . . with all these features and more. Features that save you money . . . that mean safety for your family . . . that give you big-car performance . . . big-car comfort at $35 less, on the sedan, than the nearest competing Six.

So when an ax-grinding salesman murmurs: "They've shortened the wheel base . . . you can answer: "It's just as roomy as your car, Mister!"

If he hints: "It's lighter . . . by 300 pounds" . . . you can truthfully say, "That's the kind of engineering that cuts my gas, oil and tire bills."

If he suggests: "We've got engine mountings as good as Floating Power" . . . you might just say, "No thanks, I prefer the original which has been thoroughly tested. I want Patented Floating Power with Rigid-X frame . . . not an experimental imitation."

And when he falls back on: "There ain't no such animal" . . . we'll be glad to have you tell him "I'll just look at all three low-priced cars . . . I'll take a ride in them . . . and let the best car win my business!"

WRESTLING PROBABLY CLOSE BATTLE

BY BILL LEWIS

"If we get this one, they'll win this one," the crowd yelled when the Duke of Keats yesterday when talking about the important task ahead for his team. The Duke believes that his team has the strength to beat any opposition in the crowd's hands—provided they get in there.

Right now, the job is to get "in there," according to the skipper of the Eskimos.

They may not have Earl Robertson in goal, and the Chubby Bunch on the forward line, but there's a lot of fight in the Eskimos as they think the prospect of conquest Saskatchewan here tomorrow night.

That kind of break only makes the Eskimos more determined to win and win. They've had enough of this winter's "Pony of the North" and they believe they can overcome the greatest challenge.

Incidentally, I discovered yesterday that this incident in Scott's team was not as recent as Saskatchewan. It is a discredited rumor, rather than a broken promise, and with luck, he may yet be able to play if the team reaches playoffs.

Which is some satisfaction, at least.

The boys who by the odd bet these days are laying it on the line to say that the Alberta senior amateur championship in hockey might come tonight when the most Calgary Bronks in the second game of their playoff.

Scots spent the first game in the south Tuesday 2-1 in overtime and the "wise women" says they should make the grade on their home ice in the honours. That's only reasonable, too.

Taken man for man on paper, the "Superior" have a better record on the Southwestern, I would say, but they should always work out in a game.

The Bronks are battlers and it will take everything the Scots have to turn them back.

Did you notice how convincingly Frank, Andy, Jimmy, and the Forty-Niners won their provincial playdown series from Vancouver. The score was 10-1 on the record.

My juvenile operative informs me that this Battalion team is a real let-down by local fans in their division, and the scores were two games to one in their favour to indicate this.

While many other teams have come and gone in men's senior hockey, the University of Alberta has carried on year after year since this season the student corps appear to have a good chance of ending the provincial championship series with Calgary Moose.

They have a well-balanced team and a real coach in Arnold Henderson, the former U.C. lumbar, and it would be a welcome achievement if they could bring this championship to Edmonton.

Eskimos Make Final Home Stand Here Friday

CAN ADVANCE BY WIN OVER GANGLISH SIX

Win Will Practically Put Team In Playoffs for League Title

A fighting stand that may mean practically the clinching of a berth in the Western Canada Hockey League playoffs will be made tomorrow night by the Eskimos when they make their final appearance of the league schedule on home ice against Saskatchewan.

The game will take place at the arena, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

A win for the Eskimos will put them four points in front of the Vancouver Canucks in the playoffs where they will be hard to nose out in the race for a playoff berth. If they do win, it means that Saskatchewan will have to take at least one of their remaining three starts from the pace-setting Calgary Tigers to be in the playoffs.

And if the Eskimos win, they will have to take back the Tigers three times in a row to finish at least one place below the Eskimos.

Winning tonight will be a big boost for the Eskimos, who are determined to beat back the assault of the invading Creechmen tomorrow night. If the Eskimos win, they will have to take back the Tigers three times in a row to finish at least one place below the Eskimos.

Forty-Ninth AGAIDOWNS PONOKA CLUB

Local Juveniles Advance In Playdowns for Alberta Title

By TOMMY GRAHAM

Frank Angus's Forty-Ninth Junior team advanced to the semi-finals of the provincial juvenile playdowns when the butry gang of parketers defeated the fair of Ponoka and handed their speedy kids a convincing 5-2 triumph on the southern ice rink last night.

The second game of the series, the Creechmen's last game in the round, was played at the arena, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

The Forty-Niners will now meet the winners of the first round, the Ponoka team, in the semi-finals of the series.

Opening the initial period with a low drive after converting Red's pass, the Ponoka kids, with their back-breaking and forward passing drive, completely baffled the Creechmen.

The Creechmen, however, were not to be outwitted as they led the Niners early in the opening period when they scored the first goal of the game early in the first period.

The Creechmen's lead was not to last, however, as the Ponoka kids scored the equalizing goal in the second period.

CLUBS ARE OVERHEATED BY HOLD-OUTS

Many of Balkiest Stars

Fall Into Line With

Their Teams

By ALAN GLOD

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, March 2.—After the major league baseball caravan de-played today on a widespread marking the full swing of the effort to get the players only four of the 16 clubs still held out by the players' union in the rear-guard.

So long as this list constituted notable figures as Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig of the Yankees, and the series of the Indians, Frank

Trich and David Vance of the Cardinals and Hack Wilson of the Phillies, it constituted a major problem in front-front tactics.

Nevertheless, it is significant the actual signing of the huge at camp scattered from Calicut at Miami has prompted many of the balkiest troops to map into the rear-guard.

WHEAT PRICES SAG SLIGHTLY LATE TRADING

WINNIPEG, March 2.—Heavy selling at Chicago caused by a weak wheat market and continued demand conditions in the United States offset a number of bullish factors in early trading. One Alberta interest alone selling over 200,000 bushels, generally against a weak market at Vancouver. Average estimates of United States wheat reserves of wheat was 100,000,000 bushels compared with 20,000,000 bushels a year ago.

But financial conditions a number of states below the line disturbed confidence of wheat holders and prices were unable to stand the strain. Prices for the highest quality wheat had accumulated and closed fractionally lower.

Russia stopped to what this week. April 20,000 bushels last week. Average movement is estimated at 2,000,000 bushels this week as compared with 4,500,000 bushels last week.
